

MOURNING FOR EDWIN BOUTH

Messages of Condolence from the World's Greatest Actors.

Tributes from Henry Irving and Augustin Daly in London.

The body of Tragedian Edwin Booth was this morning transferred to a plain oak casket by Undertaker Mr. Wm. and it lay all day in the room where the tragedian died at the Players' Club.

The plate of the casket is of illuminated brass, and the handles are also of highly polished brass.

On the casket lay a single floral offering, a two-foot laurel wreath, with purple ribbon, from Mrs. Grossman, the actor's daughter.

About the room also were several other floral pieces, prominent among them being a large wreath of white roses, lilies of the valley and cypress leaves from Washington friends, and a floral pillow, inscribed "Good-bye, sweet Mr. Booth, Edwin Forrest Lodge, O. C. T. U. which Mr. Booth was a member."

As yet, there were many callers at the club-house and many messages of condolence were received.

President William H. H. of the Players' Club, gave out these cables and telegrams for publication:

LONDON, June 7. I am grieved beyond measure at the sad news of your dear father's death. The world is poorer today for a great and true actor has passed away.

With profound regret I learn of our President's death. He was certainly the greatest actor of his time and a great friend of the theater.

After receiving no one can give more profound sympathy than I do to the family.

Deep sorrow, sympathy and love. Edwin Booth's noble life is a perpetual inspiration. Let us live by his example.

My heart goes out in deepest sympathy to the family.

The sympathy of our country, the prayers of our people, and the love of our friends will be with you in this hour of grief.

Philadelphia, June 7. We are all deeply grieved at the death of our friend and actor, Edwin Booth. He was a noble man and a great actor.

THE DAY IN WALL STREET.

A Bear Raid on Western Union Which Proved a Fizzle. Also a Flurry in Money, Which Was Brief.

WALL STREET, Thursday, June 8.—A distinctly better tone characterized dealings at the Stock Exchange this morning.

The reduction in the Bank of England discount rate from 4 to 3 per cent, a further decline in sterling exchange here, an improvement in the situation at Chicago and the strength of American securities in London, all combined to stiffen the backbone of the bulls.

The presentation by "The World" of this morning of the views of members of Congress on the much-mixed silver question, also had a reassuring effect in financial circles.

Prices advanced anywhere from 1-2 to 1-4 per cent. The volume of business was small, because there were comparatively few stocks offering at going quotations.

American sugar advanced 1-2 to 3-4; Chicago, 1-2 to 3-4; New York, 1-2 to 3-4; 7-8; 10-12; 13-15; 16-18; 19-21; 22-24; 25-27; 28-30; 31-33; 34-36; 37-39; 40-42; 43-45; 46-48; 49-51; 52-54; 55-57; 58-60;
